Please ensure that all participants have reviewed the notes in regards to dressing room assignments that were provided in the Studio Information Packet. Dressing rooms are assigned according to the registered number of participants in each session, and dancers should only occupy the dressing rooms when they are actively changing. Mid-day sessions will be busy. Once your studio is done for the day, please bring your blue studio sign to the check-in table; this will let others that are coming in know that your space is available. Talk to the other Directors/dancers in your room; several rooms are set up so that one studio has less/no dancers during a session, and that space can be occupied by the opposite studio. Thank you!
