KAITHLIN FETTES

JUDGE

Kaithlin is the former Head Coach of the Wayne State University Dance Team, where she led the team to a National Championship in the Division II Team Performance category at The College Classic in 2023. She previously served as Head Coach of the nationally competitive Salem High School Pom and Dance Team.

With extensive experience across both the high school and collegiate levels, Kaithlin currently works as a choreographer, consultant, and judge for dance teams throughout the region. Her experience, combined with her passion for developing dancers and teams, gives her a well-rounded perspective on performance, technique, choreography, and competition.

Outside of dance, Kaithlin has worked as a hairstylist and educator for 22 years. She also works in corporate event production as a Program Coordinator and Backstage Manager for a Detroit based business. She currently lives in Canton, Michigan, with her husband, Brett, and their pets.

MICHIGAN'S DANCE TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP